

School	Zip	Website	Program Highlight	State	FRTEP or 94
FRTEP (ReNEW) Alaska	99775-6180	http://www.uaf.edu/ces/nrcd/village-food-systems/village-food-projects/community-food-projects-t/	Village youth, volunteerism and leadership. A 4-H program for (TANF) recipients and SAFE, the women and children's shelter.	AK	51
FRTEP Tanna Chiefs	99701-4899	http://www.uaf.edu/ces/districts/tribes/Contact-Us/	The Alaskan Growers School will help Alaska Natives living in remote villages build food security through gardening	AK	51
Ilisagvik College	99723-0000	http://www.ilisagvik.cc/	Ilisagvik College continues to offer programs on nutrition, health and science for the benefit of the 7,500 residents of the North Slope Borough.	AK	0
FRTEP Colorado River Indian Tribe (CRIT)	85344-3485	http://extension.arizona.edu/colorado-river-indian-tribes	A youth garden at LePera elementary school grew 400 pounds of squash, 3,000 pounds of tomatoes, which was donated to senior centers, the food bank and to low-income tribal residents on the reservation.	AZ	51
FRTEP Navajo Nation-Western Agency (Tuba City)	86045-0126	http://extension.arizona.edu/navajo-nation-tuba-city	This year, the project director provided 298 participants with Beef Quality Assurance and Marketing training, resulting in certification for 41 Ranch families.	AZ	51
FRTEP San Carlos Apache Tribe	85550-0850		The project director made new contacts with an alternative school and is helping to set up a youth garden, using leveraged funding from a Peoples' Garden grant under NIFA.	AZ	51
FRTEP Hualapai Nation	86434-0627	http://extension.arizona.edu/hualapai-nation	The project director set up a green technology program at the Juvenile Detention and Rehabilitation Center.	AZ	51

FRTEP Hopi Tribe	86039-0123	http://extension.arizona.edu/hopi-tribe	Program has a focus of traditional foods and high school outreach. In addition, the Hopi Natural Resources Youth Workshop provided 12 youth with insights on range resources.	AZ	51
FRTEP Navajo Nation-Window Rock	86511-1339		Rancher beef quality certification and herd health certifications were conducted in cooperation with veterinarians and food safety experts.	AZ	51
FRTEP Navajo Nation-Shiprock	87420-3629	http://extension.arizona.edu/navajo-nation-shiprock	The project director will work with the community to develop value-added foods. This training will target 30 farmers on the reservation.	AZ	51
Dine College	86556	http://www.dinecollege.edu/	Approximately 100 people attended a symposium where all students who had participated in research were able to compete in oral and poster presentations.	AZ	0
Tohono O`odham	85634	http://www.tocc.cc.az.us/	The Plant Atlas completed in 2010 was published in 2011 and is now available on CD as well as on the TOCC main Web-page at www.tocc.edu .	AZ	0
FRTEP California Hupa and Yurok Tribes	95503-6905	http://ucanr.org/?facultyid=800	In this newly established program, all four tribes covered identified youth development and college attendance as a main objective.	CA	51
FRTEP Seminole	33430-8003	http://solutionsforyourlife.ufl.edu/map/seminole_tribe.html	The FRTEP 4-H department was awarded the Tribal Hog Farm, and the Seminole Tribe of Florida Council awarded $14,000 to the FRTEP 4-H department to develop an educational opportunities.	FL	51

FRTEP Fort Hall	83203-0306	http://www.uidaho.edu/extension/easterndistrict	Agent conducted a vaccine handling study and taught safe vaccine handling procedures to 100 producers. Farm business management programs were offered to over 50 producers in 2011. The Rock?n the Rez summer camp serves between 150-200 youth annually.	ID	51
FRTEP Coeur d'Alene Reservation	83844-3020	http://www.extension.uidaho.edu/benewah/	The primary focus of this project has been equine science and horsemanship. About 200 people still had riding experiences through Environmental Science Day and Culture Camp during 2011.	ID	51
FRTEP Nez Perce Reservation	83540-0365	http://www.extension.uidaho.edu/nezpercereservation/	A day of traditional American Indian games, "Red Dog Days" was held, with the Haskell community competing with the Coeur d'Alene tribe in Plummer, Idaho.	KS	0
Haskell	66046	http://www.haskell.edu/	The highlight of the program has been youth farm stands which provide education in rural entrepreneurship and community gardening.	MI	51
FRTEP Michigan	49740-9587	http://nai.msu.edu/nai/current_projects_initiatives	The Summer Science Camp (19 youth), STEM Camp (10 youth) and College Career fairs (17 students) were all a success. The vocational Forest Fighter training with the Bureau of Indian Affairs and U.S. Forest Service certified 18 participants.	MI	0
Bay Mills	49715	http://www.bmcc.edu/	A project director provided outreach to K-12 students and a GED program. Through NIFA funding the college offered physics for the first time in 2011.	MI	0
Saginaw Chippewa	48858	http://www.sagchip.edu/

FRTEP Minnesota	55455-2070	http://www.extension.umn.edu/staffdirectory/StaffDetails.aspx?EmployeeID=4091198	This program alone has increased the amount of clean water available on the reservation by 7.7 million gallons and the agent expect the same amount of water protected each year.	MN	51
Fond du Lac	55720	http://www.fdlcc.edu/	In a partnership with K-12 schools, the Duluth Parks Department and the Fond du Lac Reservation's Resource Management Department over 400 students conducted water quality samples of regional streams for conservation research projects.	MN	0
Leech Lake Tribal College	56633		The college used Equity funding to move to a 4-year degree program in agricultural science. For the first time Leech Lake Tribal College was able to offer its students chemistry and trigonometry classes.	MN	0
White Earth Tribal and C.C.	56557	http://www.wetcc.org/	Two 9th grade students who participated in White Earth's GPS program were sponsored by the University of Minnesota (UMN) to attend the 4-H National Conference to present their work. Community based education efforts involving traditional plant use and environmental science	MN	0
FRTEP Choctaw	39762	http://msucares.com/cgi-bin/dirsearch.cgi	The FRTEP agent gave a presentation to 51 Tribal juniors and seniors at the Choctaw Central High School about opportunities in agriculture, forestry and natural resources. The principal requested that the FRTEP office provide the program annually.	MS	51

Fort Peck	59255	http://www.fpcc.edu/	Through a series of workshops, the college has helped 138 producers to improve their farming and ranching practices.	MT	51
FRTEP Flathead Reservation	59860-3234		The spring pesticide applicator training, for licensed applicators and operators, provided 40 Tribal employees with accredited training, saving the tribe over $4,500 in mileage and travel expenses.	MT	51
FRTEP Northern Cheyenne Reservation	59043-0128		A weed removal program resulted in 400 acres of new pasture. In addition, 40 producers participated in risk management training and cattle producers were educated about the importance of adopting best management practices	MT	51
FRTEP Blackfeet Reservation	59417-0850		This project allowed cattle producers to develop business plans and explore ways to maximize their financial resources through state partnerships.	MT	51
FRTEP Fort Peck Reservation	59255-1552		The FRTEP agent responded to flooding in the region with a program on USDA resources for flood recovery. As part of the flood restoration, a renovated park will now have a 4-H learning center.	MT	51
FRTEP Fort Belknap Reservation	59526-9705		A mid-Winter Fair was instrumental in building community ties and making plans for future projects. Land ownership workshops are planned for the next year in response to requests from the reservation community.	MT	51

Blackfeet C.C.	58417-0819	http://bfcc.edu/	To date, 92 family gardens were tilled and planted in 7 communities across the Blackfeet Reservation.	MT	0
Chief Dull Knife College	59043	http://www.cdkc.edu/	Financial literacy classes, conducted with the help of Montana State University (MSU) Extension Service assisted 763 community members with free tax preparation in Lame Deer and Ashland.	MT	0
Aaniiih Nakoda College	59526	http://www.fbcc.edu/	In 2011 a new Integrated Environmental Science Associate of Science Degree was developed and students will be able to apply to earn the degree in the Fall of 2012.	MT	0
Little Big Horn College	59022	http://www.lbhc.edu/	The new degree option Livestock Management and Industries has been incorporated into the 2011-13 academic catalog.	MT	0
Salish Kootenai College	59855	http://www.sk.c.edu/	Approximately 80 percent of the forestry and environmental science students completing degrees now have related employment or have gone on to graduate school.	MT	0
Stone Child College	59521	http://www.stonechild.edu/	A new class, Environmental Measurements, drew students with its opportunities to use GIS and GPS technology while learning math.	MT	0
Little Priest Tribal College	68071	http://www.littlepriest.edu/	During a three month period from May 2011 through July 2011, twenty three youth participated in Common Ground Gardens (CGG) summer garden project.	MT	0
Nebraska Indian C.C.	68760	http://www.thenicc.edu/	The college increased its student count increased from 90-150. This was a record for student enrollment.	NE	0

Board of Regents, NSHE, obo University of Nevada, Reno	89557-2970	http://www.unce.unr.edu/programs/agriculture/index.asp?ID=41	An alternative energy project is underway that will give farmers knowledge about the use of solar and wind energy so they can reduce production costs.	NV	51
FRTEP Cherokee	27695-7514	http://einci.ces.ncsu.edu/	The Chief's Garden Kit distributes starter garden seeds and supplies during four springtime events to 600 Cherokee Families. These gardens help provide food stability and the produce grown is also exhibited at summer Garden Contests and the Cherokee Indian Fair Agriculture Exhibits.	NC	51
FRTEP Jicarilla	87528-0679		The agent provided clientele with information on equine production, the horse market, wild horse round up and other activities, resulting in an increase in farm income by 10 percent	NM	51
FRTEP Zuni	87327-0713		Veterinary clinics held in the spring and fall provided the Zuni Reservation $80,000 in free animal health care.	NM	51
Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA)	87508	http://www.iaia.edu/	Students at the Santa Fe Indian School (SFIS) earn college credit while participating in programs that center around experiments at the college greenhouse and at gardens located at the Pueblo de Cochiti Hahn Center.	NM	0
Navajo Technical College	87313	http://www.navajotech.edu/	The college continues its teaching veterinary clinic where students can achieve certification as veterinary technicians and the reservation cattle owners can rely on two teaching veterinarians who provide on-farm service calls.	NM	0

Southwestern Indian Polytechnic Institute	87120	http://www.sipi.edu/	Students in an internship program assisted with the planning, design, and construction of a composting bin to recycle garden waste and begin a campus recycling program for cafeteria. NM	0
FRTEP North Dakota	58701-7662	http://www.ext.nodak.edu/county/ftbertho/	The FRTEP program and the Three Affiliated Tribes Environmental Division started an EPA-funded water sampling project of private wells across the Reservation, with sampling and analysis continuing during spring 2012. ND	51
Cankdeska Cikana C.C.	58335	http://www.littlehoop.edu/content/	In 2011 the college initiated its Natural Resource curriculum, developed with stakeholder input from tribal environmental agencies. Student will engage in hands-on learning as they collect and interpret data, use scientific vocabulary to describe environmental changes. ND	0
Fort Berthold C.C.	58763	http://www.fortbertholdcc.edu/	The gardening and horticulture lab had a strong 2011 growing season, producing approximately 15,000 ears of sweet corn and about 4,500 pounds of potatoes which provided staff, students and administrators with food. ND	0
Sitting Bull College	58538	http://www.sittingbull.edu/	The college uses NIFA extension funding mainly to improve the sustainability of livestock production among Native American ranchers in the Standing Rock community, with emphasis on bison management, including hide tanning. ND	0

United Tribes Technical	58504	http://www.uttc.edu/main.asp	Nutrition and Foodservice classes on campus and online continued to be offered both spring and fall 2011, with an active apprenticeship program.	ND	0
Turtle Mountain Community College	58316	http://www.turtle-mountain.cc.nd.us/	The project will provide gardening education, seeds, seedlings, garden tilling, technical assistance with garden problems and preservation classes.	ND	0
FRTEP Muscogee	74447-6527	https://app.it.okstate.edu/directory/index.php/module/Default/action/PeopleResult?id=261718&campus=3&page=&new_window=yes	The Creek tribal leadership has committed $176,248 to 4-H Youth Development efforts. The Creek Nation small animal show circuit of involved 620 youth.	OK	51
FRTEP Oregon	97761-0000	http://extension.oregonstate.edu/warmsprings/	The FRTEP project director was able to help the Reservation community re-establish its tribal farm from land which had been unused for 30 years.	OR	51
FRTEP Cheyenne River	57625	http://www.sdstate.edu/sdces/native-american/index.cfm	Program will be helping local agricultural producers will increase their knowledge of developing local food systems, such as Farm to School food distribution.	SD	51
FRTEP Pine Ridge	57772	http://www.sdstate.edu/sdces/native-american/index.cfm	The project director reports that workshops and field training conducted through the Beginning Farmer Rancher program on Pine Ridge reached over 100 reservation citizens with training in entrepreneurship partnering.	SD	51
FRTEP Rosebud	57555	http://www.sdstate.edu/sdces/native-american/index.cfm	The agents visited 107 classrooms had helped 322 youth participate in the Todd County Environmental Fair.	SD	51

Oglala Lakota College	57752	http://www.olc.edu/	The project director used Equity funding to enhance curriculum, provide distance education and improve the over-all science program at the college.	SD	0
Sinte Gleska University	57555	http://www.sintegleska.edu/	Sinte Gleska University has introduced service learning projects to their students, and this program is going to be expanded in the future.	SD	0
Sisseton Wahpeton College	57262	http://www.swc.tc/	The college has been working with four Dakota elders and college science faculty to infuse Dakota cultural knowledge into all science classes. This program will involve Tribal youth in a community-based approach to growing and using traditional food sources.	SD	0
FRTEP Wisconsin	54806-1652	http://www.uwex.edu/ces/dir/displayrecord.cfm?id=7106&CFID=2199699&CFTOKEN=26944856		WI	51
Menominee Nation	54135	http://www.menominee.edu/	A special program on predatory lending was provided to the Mole Lake Sokaogon Chippewa Community.	WI	0
Lac Courte Oreilles	54843	http://www.lco.edu/	NIFA grants also provided students with vouchers for classroom supplies, transportation, stipends, scholarships, and internship opportunities.	WI	0
FRTEP Wyoming	82071-2000	http://www.uwyo.edu/ces/county/wind_river/index.html	Conservation workshops provided information to small acreage landowners who are new to the region, or wanted to learn more about managing their existing property sustainably. Classes were well received. Typically, residents must travel 60 to 100 miles for this kind of information.	WY	51

FRTEP Colville Reservation	99155-0111	http://county.wsu.edu/ferry/Pages/default.aspx	Tribal members released biological agents on 850 acres of weed infestations located at 67 sites across the reservation. Each release will impact an estimated 20 acres over the next few years for an acreage impact of 1,340 acres in the immediate future.	WA	51
FRTEP Oregle County	99156-5045	http://county.wsu.edu/pendoreille/Pages/default.aspx	This FRTEP program is focused on youth, with projects involving science, gardening, cultural knowledge and firearm safety.	WA	51
Northwest Indian College	98226	http://www.nwic.edu/	The Financial Literacy Program served 250 clients in five tribal communities from October 2011 to February 2012.	WA	0
Blackfeet Community College	58417-0819	http://bfcc.edu/	To date, 92 family gardens were tilled and planted in 7 communities across the Blackfeet Reservation.	MT	0